

Catoosa County Public Schools (CCPS) is making plans for a safe return to the important work of teaching and learning for students and employees for the 2020-2021 school year. Based on community data from the Department of Public Health as of July 27, plans are to begin the school year on August 24, providing three options: traditional in-person instruction (5 days/week) for elementary, hybrid M-T/Th-F for secondary, and online/digital instruction. The digital instruction model will allow students to remain enrolled in their school, and learn from home with a teacher dedicated to the online option. The district will continue to monitor community data. If there is a significant increase in the number of positive cases in Catoosa County, plans may need to be modified during the year.

We want parents, teachers, and employees to be confident that health and safety are our highest priorities as we return to school. CCPS leaders have studied guidance from the Department of Public Health and the Georgia Department of Education in planning for the safest, most effective opening of school this fall.

Catoosa's reopening plan is based on information from Georgia's Path to Recovery for K-12 Schools, click here to review. The following plan provides an overview of the guidance for returning to traditional in-person instruction (pages 2-7), and guidance about online/digital instruction (pages 8-10).

The principal and the school nurse will be the school's main COVID-19 point of contact. Random temperature checks and health screenings of students and staff will be conducted prior to school starting and throughout the day. Students and staff with COVID-19 symptoms or a temperature of 100.4°F and above will be immediately isolated and sent home. The Catoosa County Nurse Coordinator will notify local health officials immediately for guidance on next steps, including closures. Measures will be taken to ensure student and staff privacy.

The teachers will conduct a digital open house for parents and students prior to the first day of class. • Students will follow the Catoosa County School District grading period windows. • Courses will have instructional expectations and the rigor will mirror face-to-face instruction. • Students and teachers will be held to the prescribed learning schedule provided by the Catoosa On-line Academy, which will supervise digital instruction for these students. The Digital Learning Option students will follow the same calendar and pacing schedule as the face-to-face instruction occurring in the school building. • Courses will be accessed through Google Classroom, SchoolsPLP, and/or the APEX Learning Management System.
